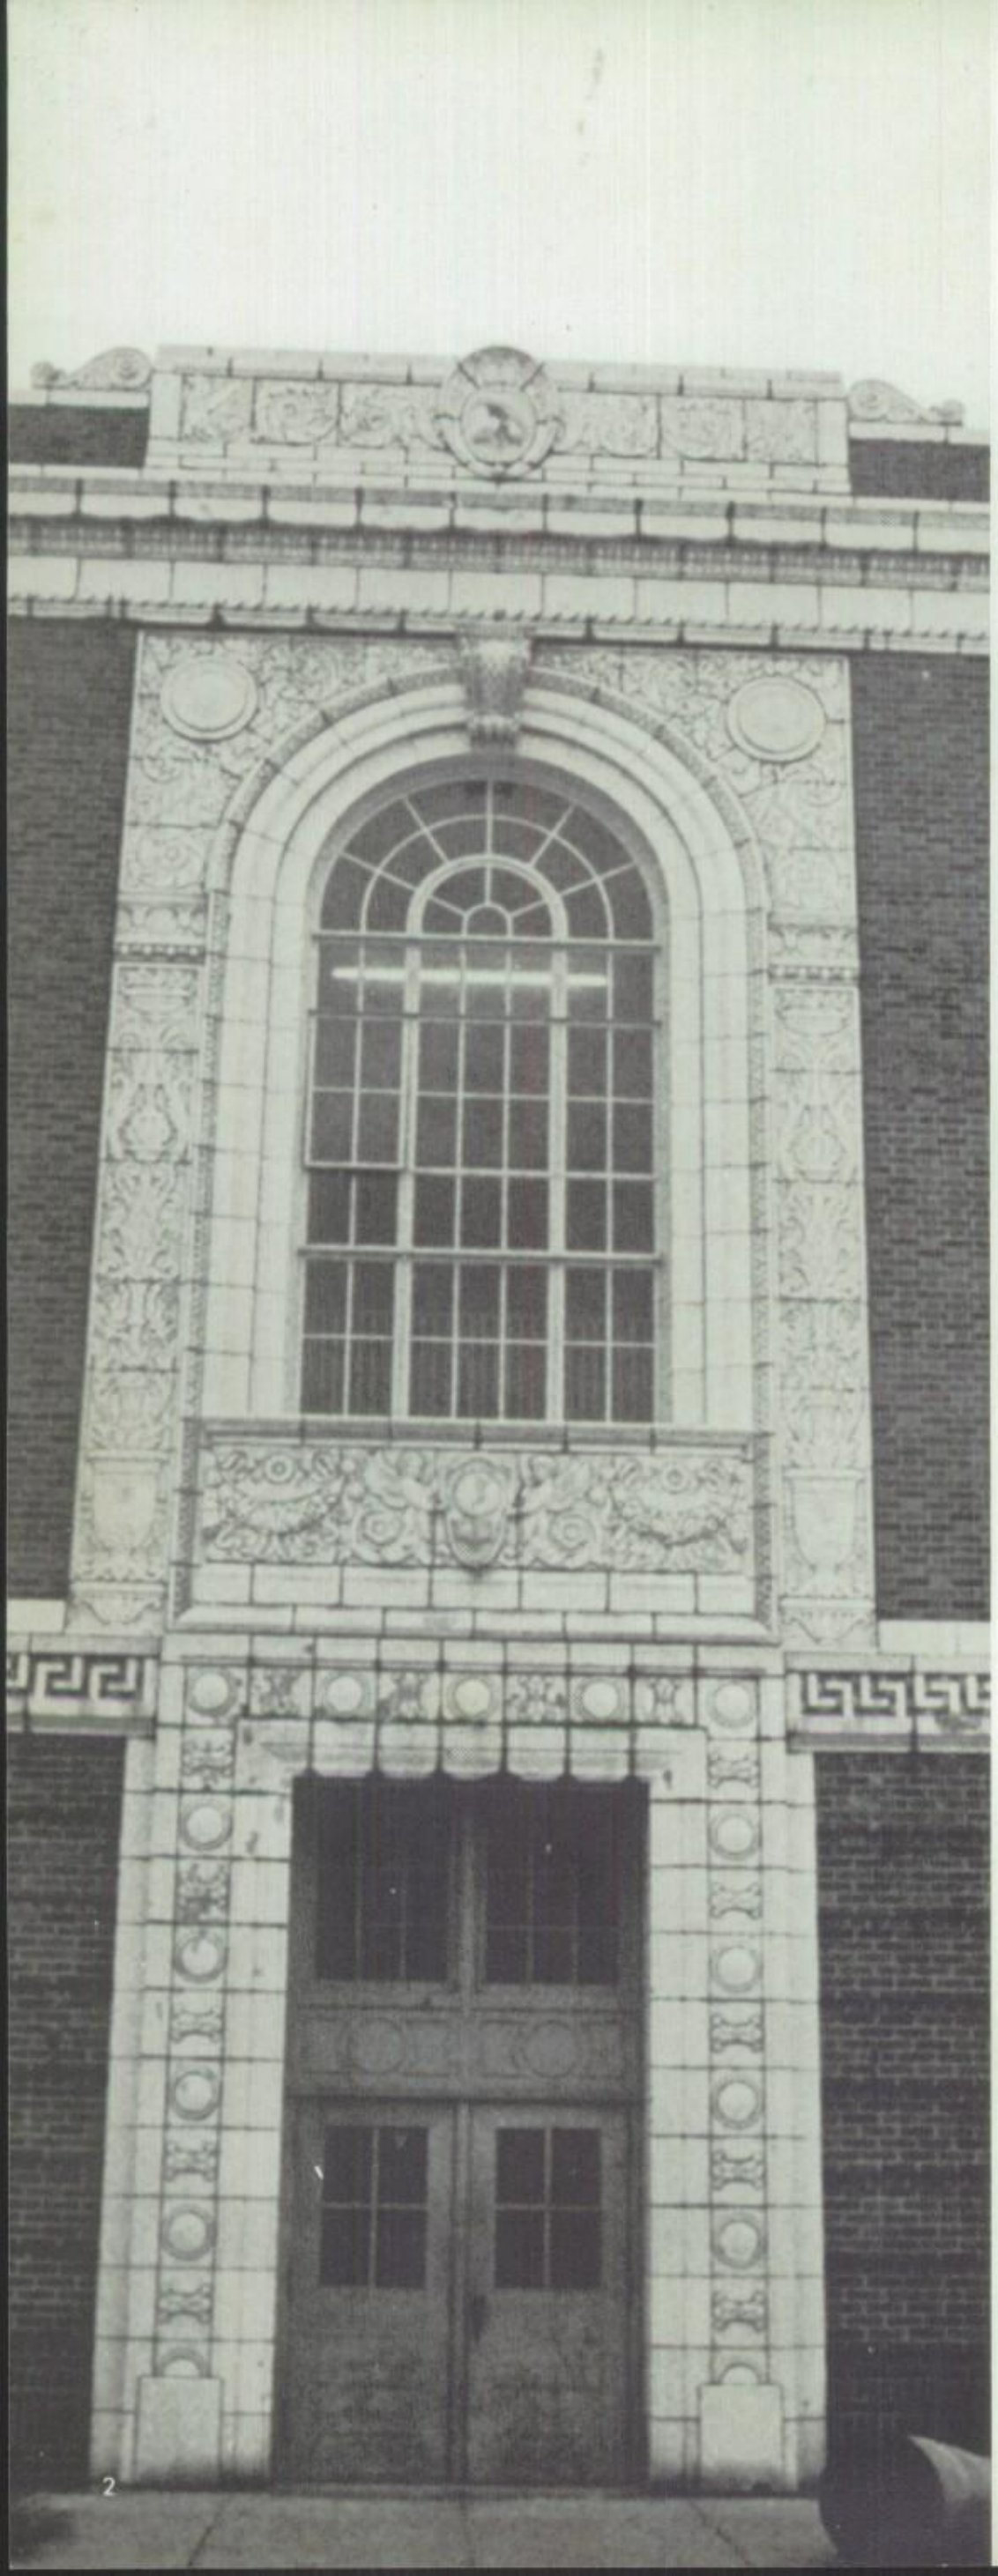
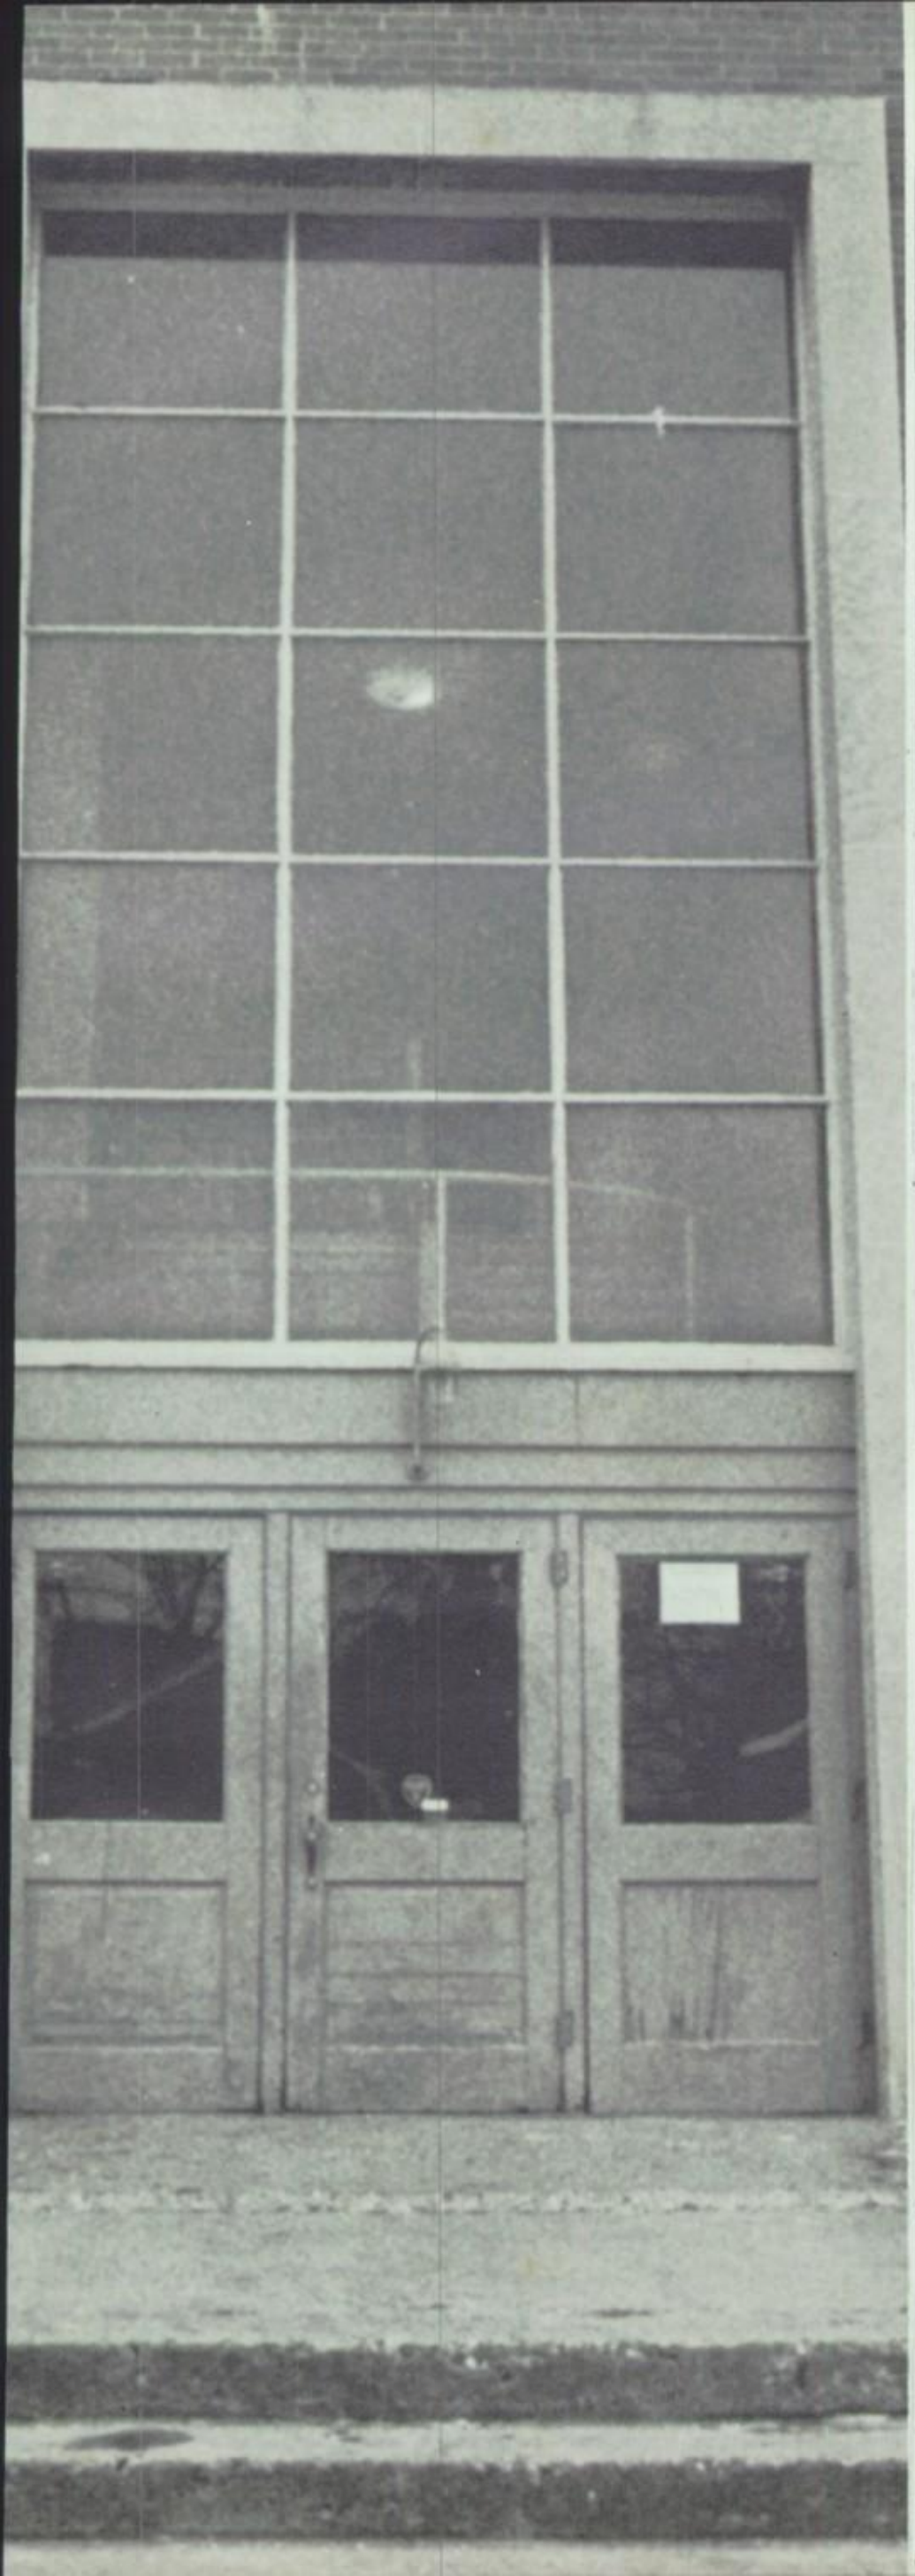
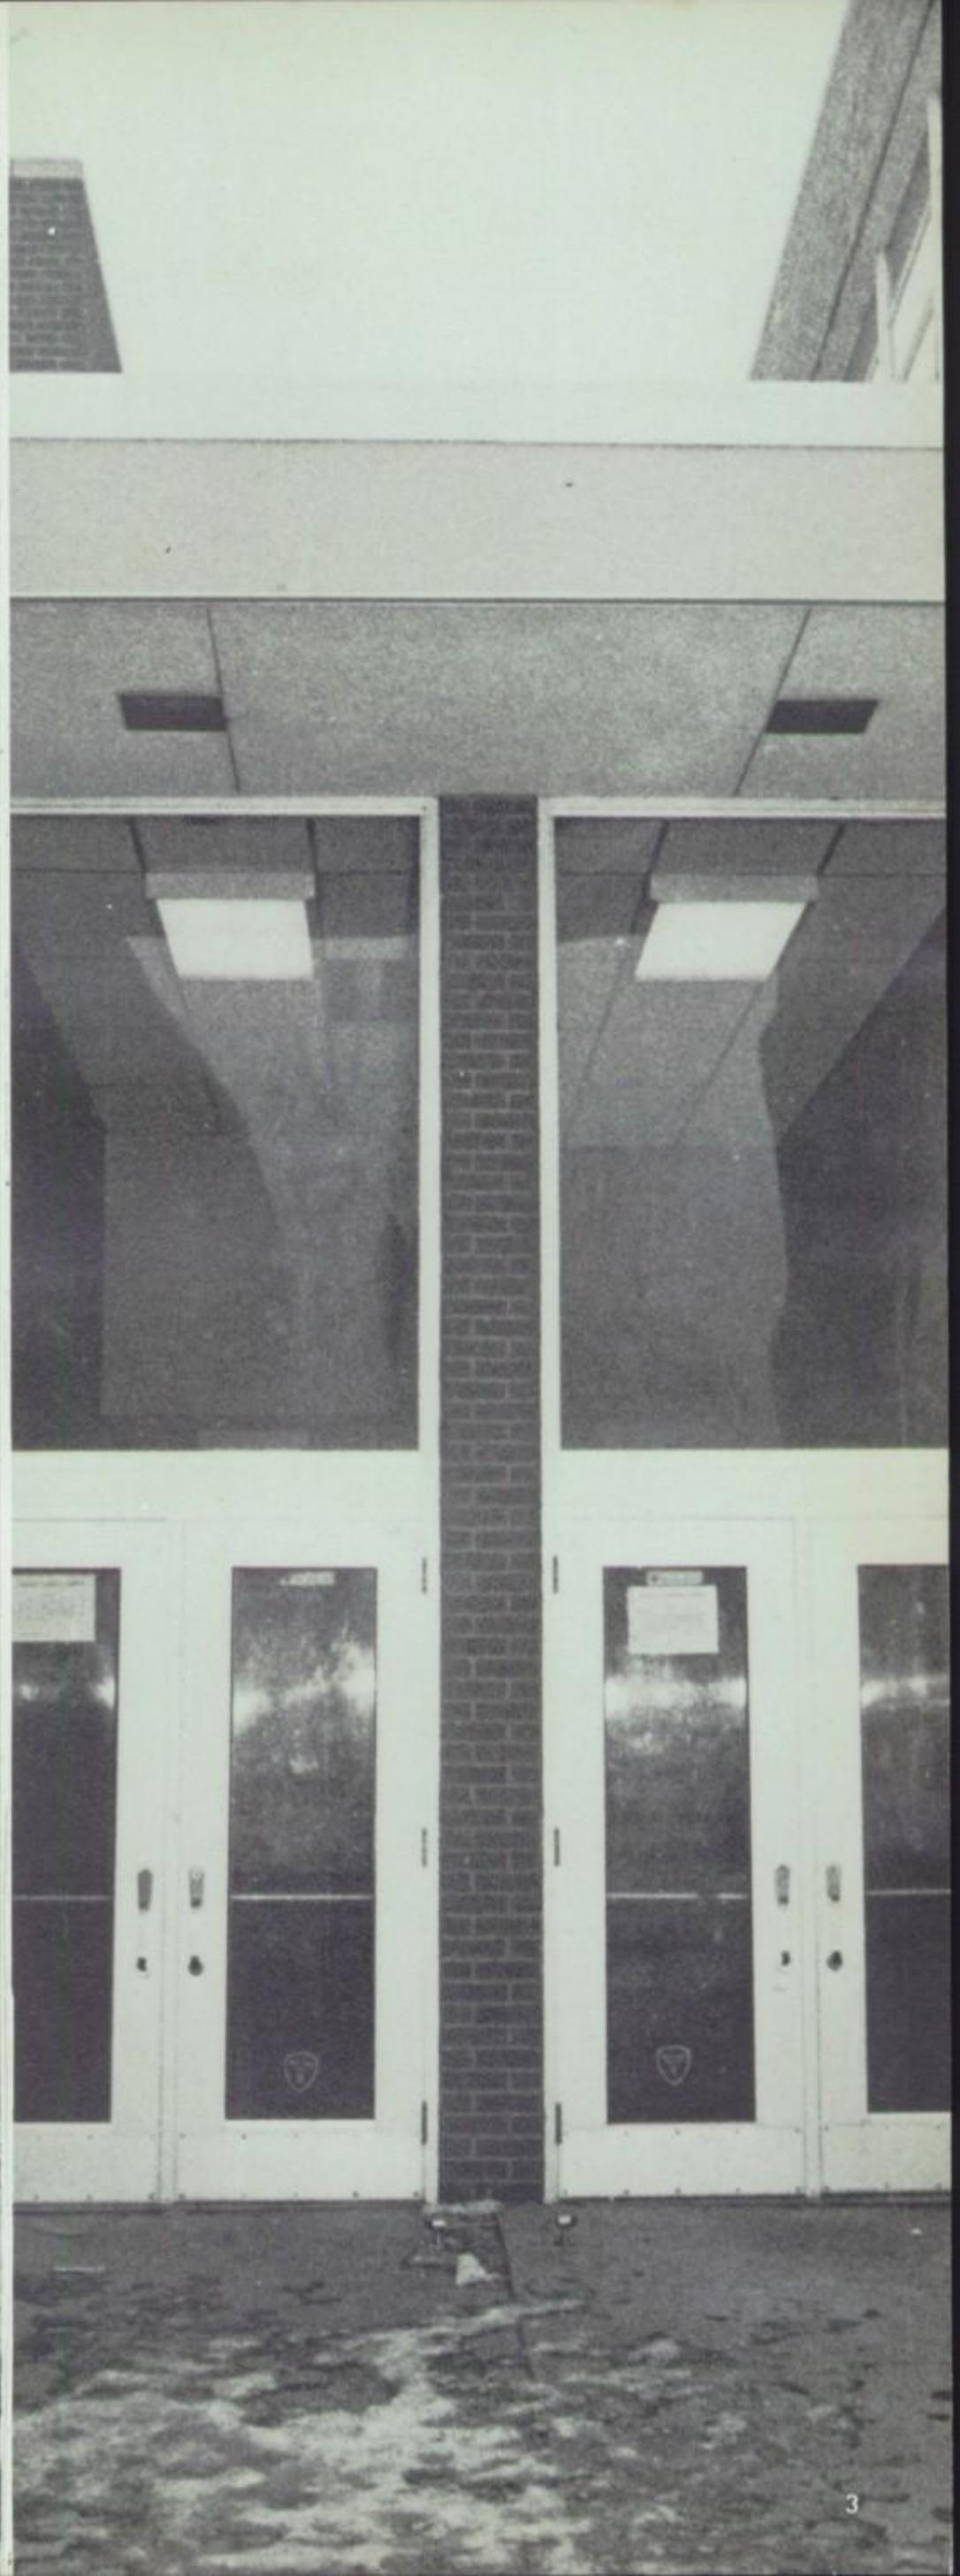
Windows and Doors

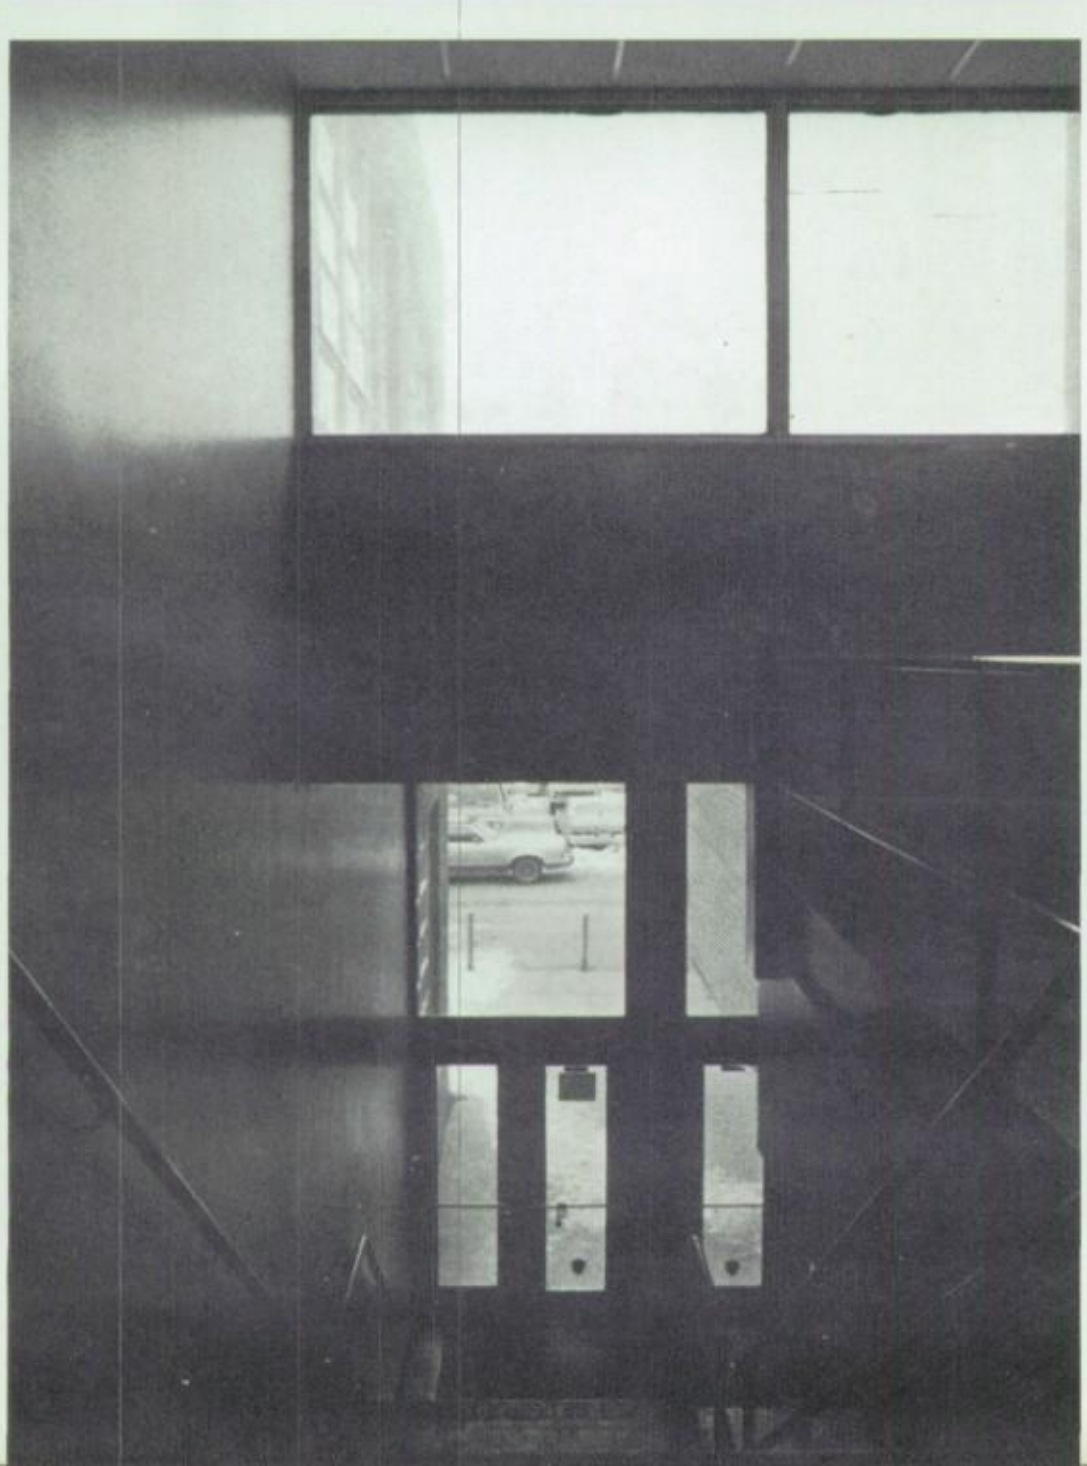






Our windows are a real measure of the openness and freedom with which we live now, of our sense of feeling settled and secure. Through them we may watch the growth and decline and return of days and seasons; may observe and be observed by our friends, our neighbors and the passing world; and may appreciate our involvement in life outside, AND OUR INDIVIDUAL PLACE IN IT.

Our windows are our oldest, simplest, and most direct form of communication. We look through them continually, but how often do we look at them? Look at windows. They have more to tell you — about your heritage and about your present self than they have ever shown you.

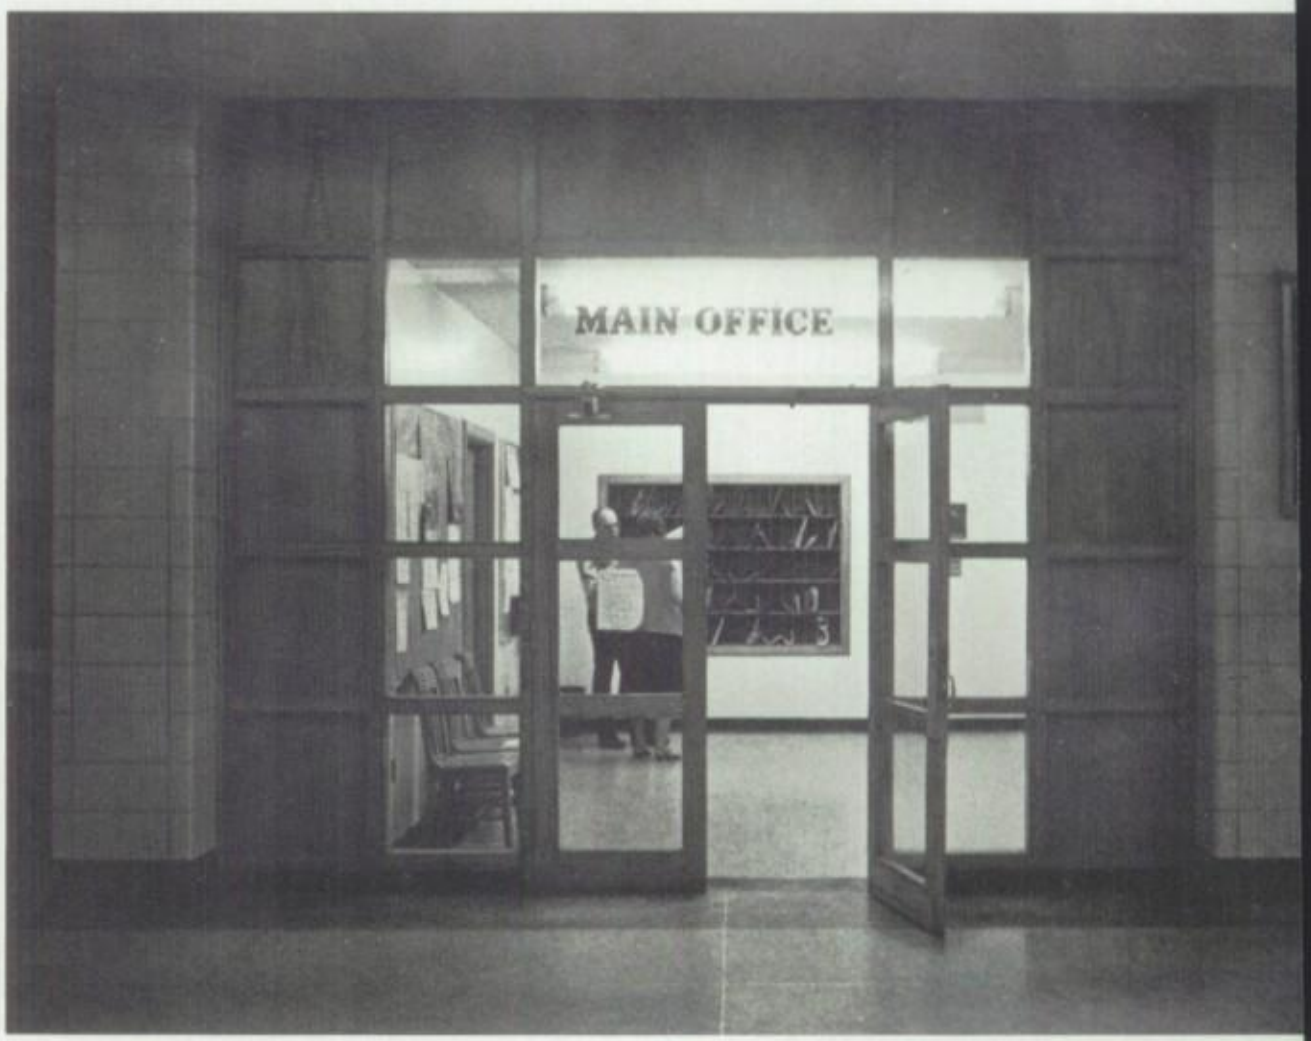


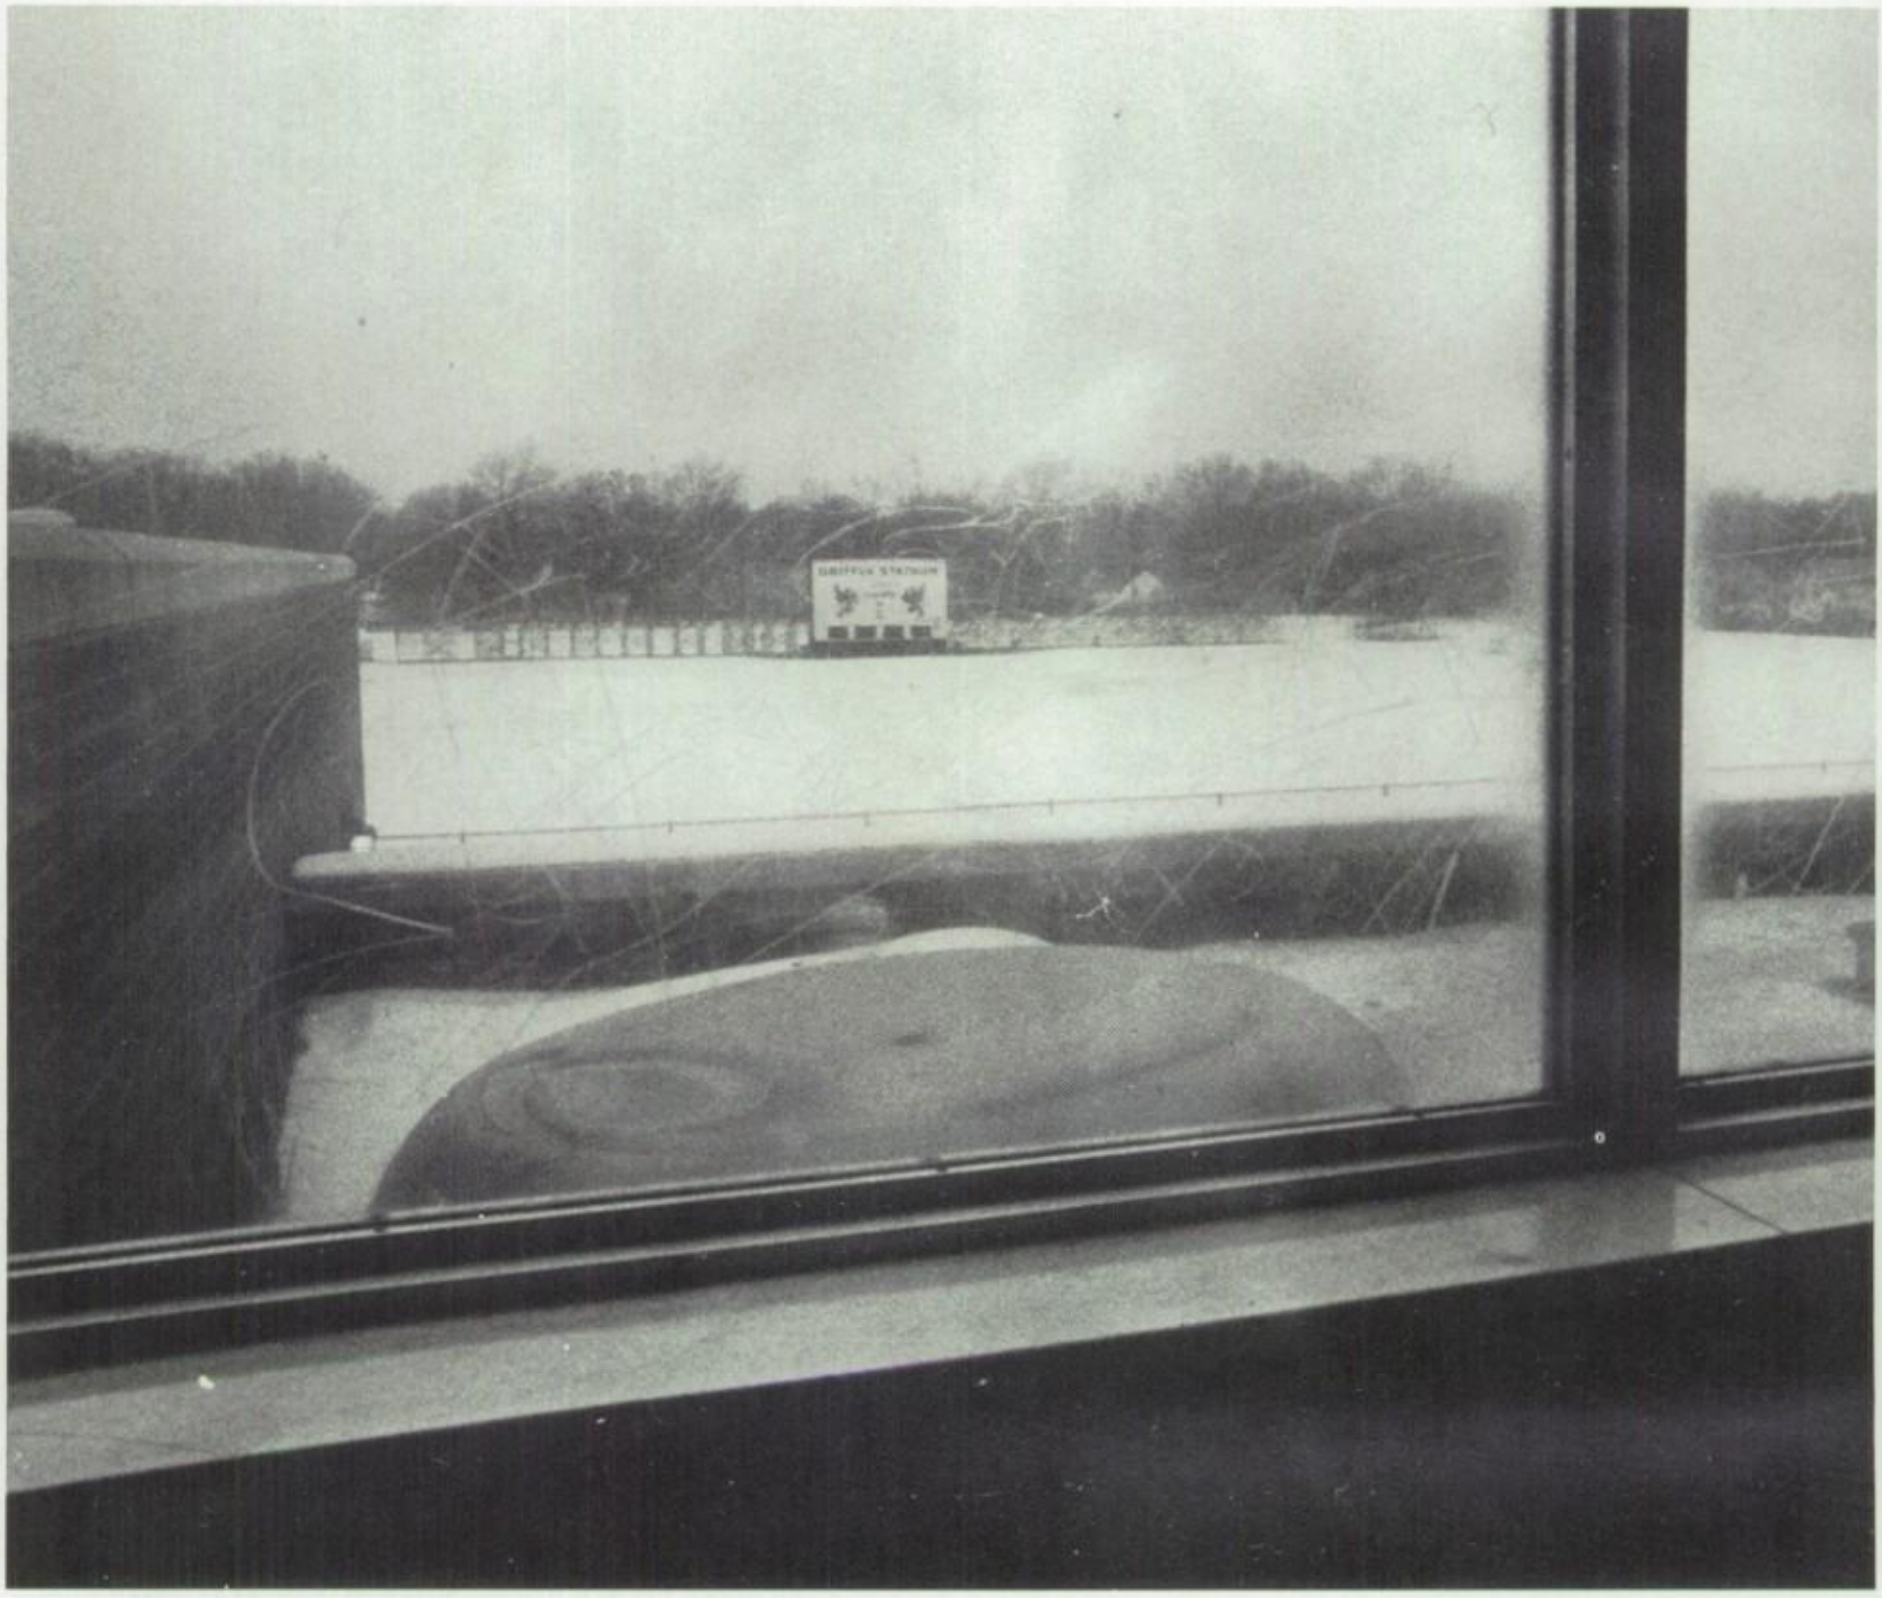
If windows are the eyes of a building, a door is its mouth. Windows are passive, doors are active. Through windows we glimpse what is and what happens, but when we pass through a doorway we encounter and most likely become involved in what lies beyond.

Doors remain closed to tell us of our rejection or of another's seclusion, doors open to welcome us or to engulf and imprison us, doors frame our farewells or joyous reunions or tearful reconcilliations, doors slam like periods at the end of scenes of anger or frustration or bewilderment, doors beckon us to a haven when the world has become too demanding or wearying or threatening and enclose us in love and warmth and familiarity, guarding us solidly from peril and weather and the unknown. Yet doors admit surprises and delights, fresh air, new friends or long-lost lovers, good news, unexpected gifts, long-for responses, the quick kindness of neighbors . . .

Break on through to the other side—

JIM MORRISON AND THE DOORS





For now we see through a glass, darkly;

1981 SENIORS

SENIORS
To learn to live
To look and leap
To leave this lane
And memories keep Walking on
With head held high
We hold the keys
To touch the sky.

It's time you gave us a talking-to.

Congratulations to the graduates. And now we think it's time to sit down for a chat...with you doing the talking.

At The Firestone Bank, we'd like to know about your plans for the future...college or a job. In either case, we can advise you on how to make the coming years more pleasant by starting a banking program designed just for you.

You're invited to stop in at any of our convenient banking centers and talk with one of our people. You see, we understand young people's needs...because we listen... and we listen hard.

The Firestone Bank

The good listeners.

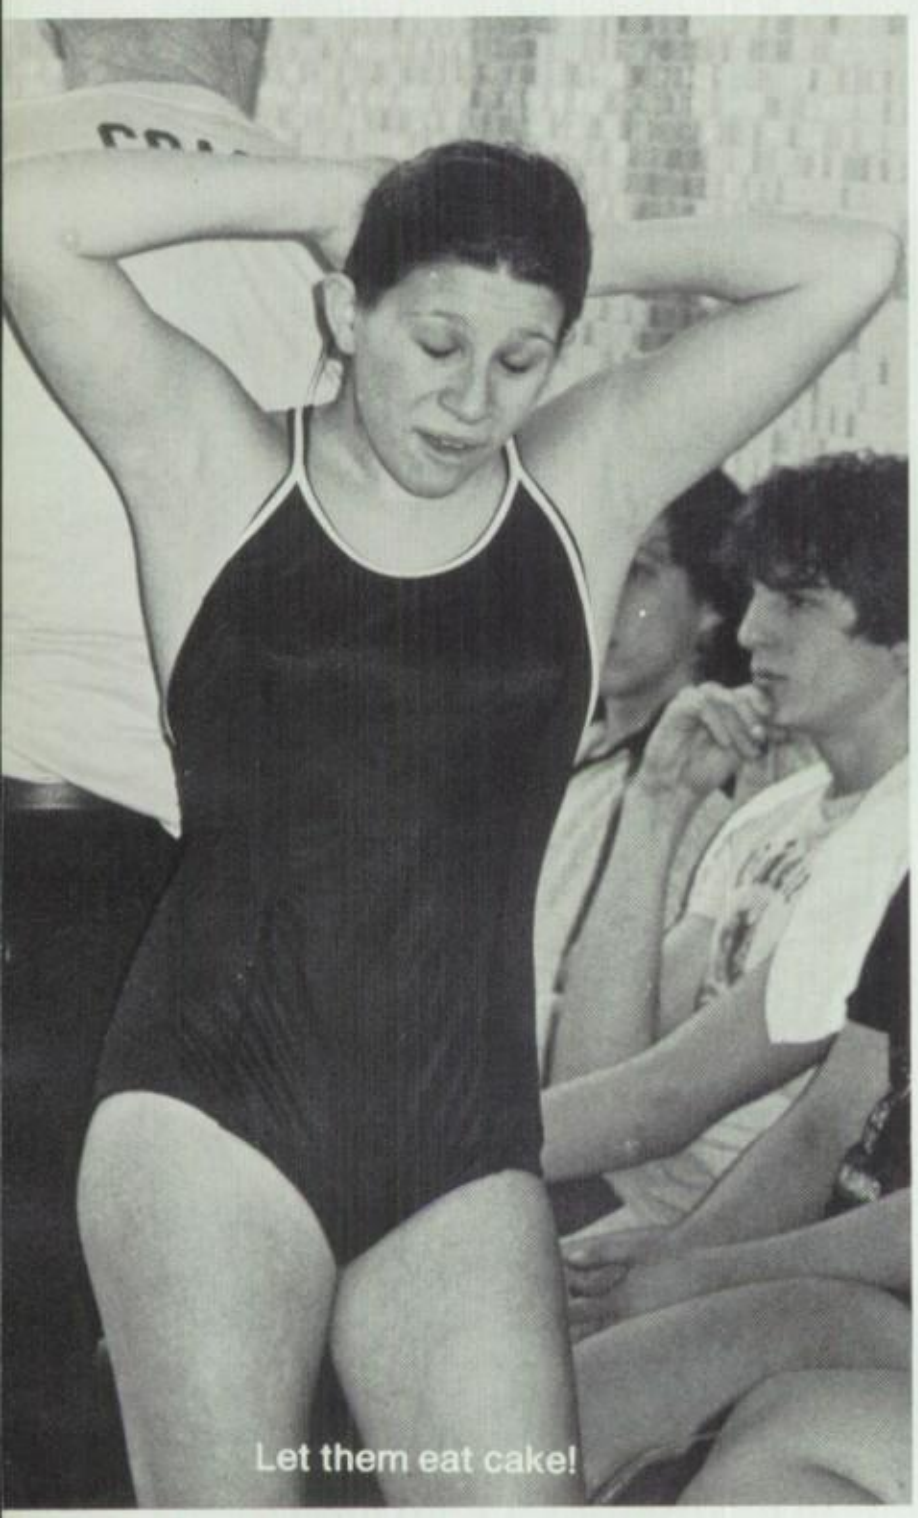
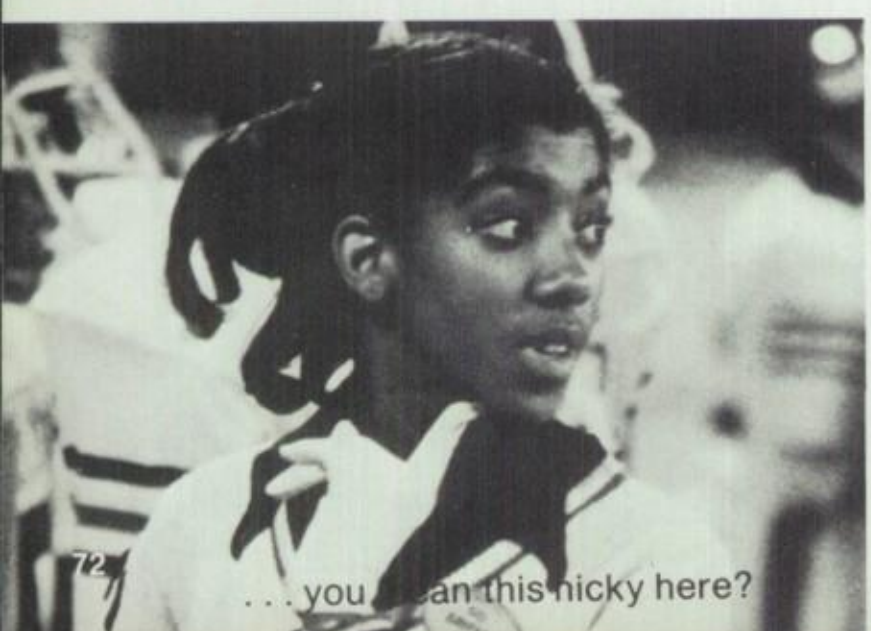
Rub a dub dub, here comes the sub.

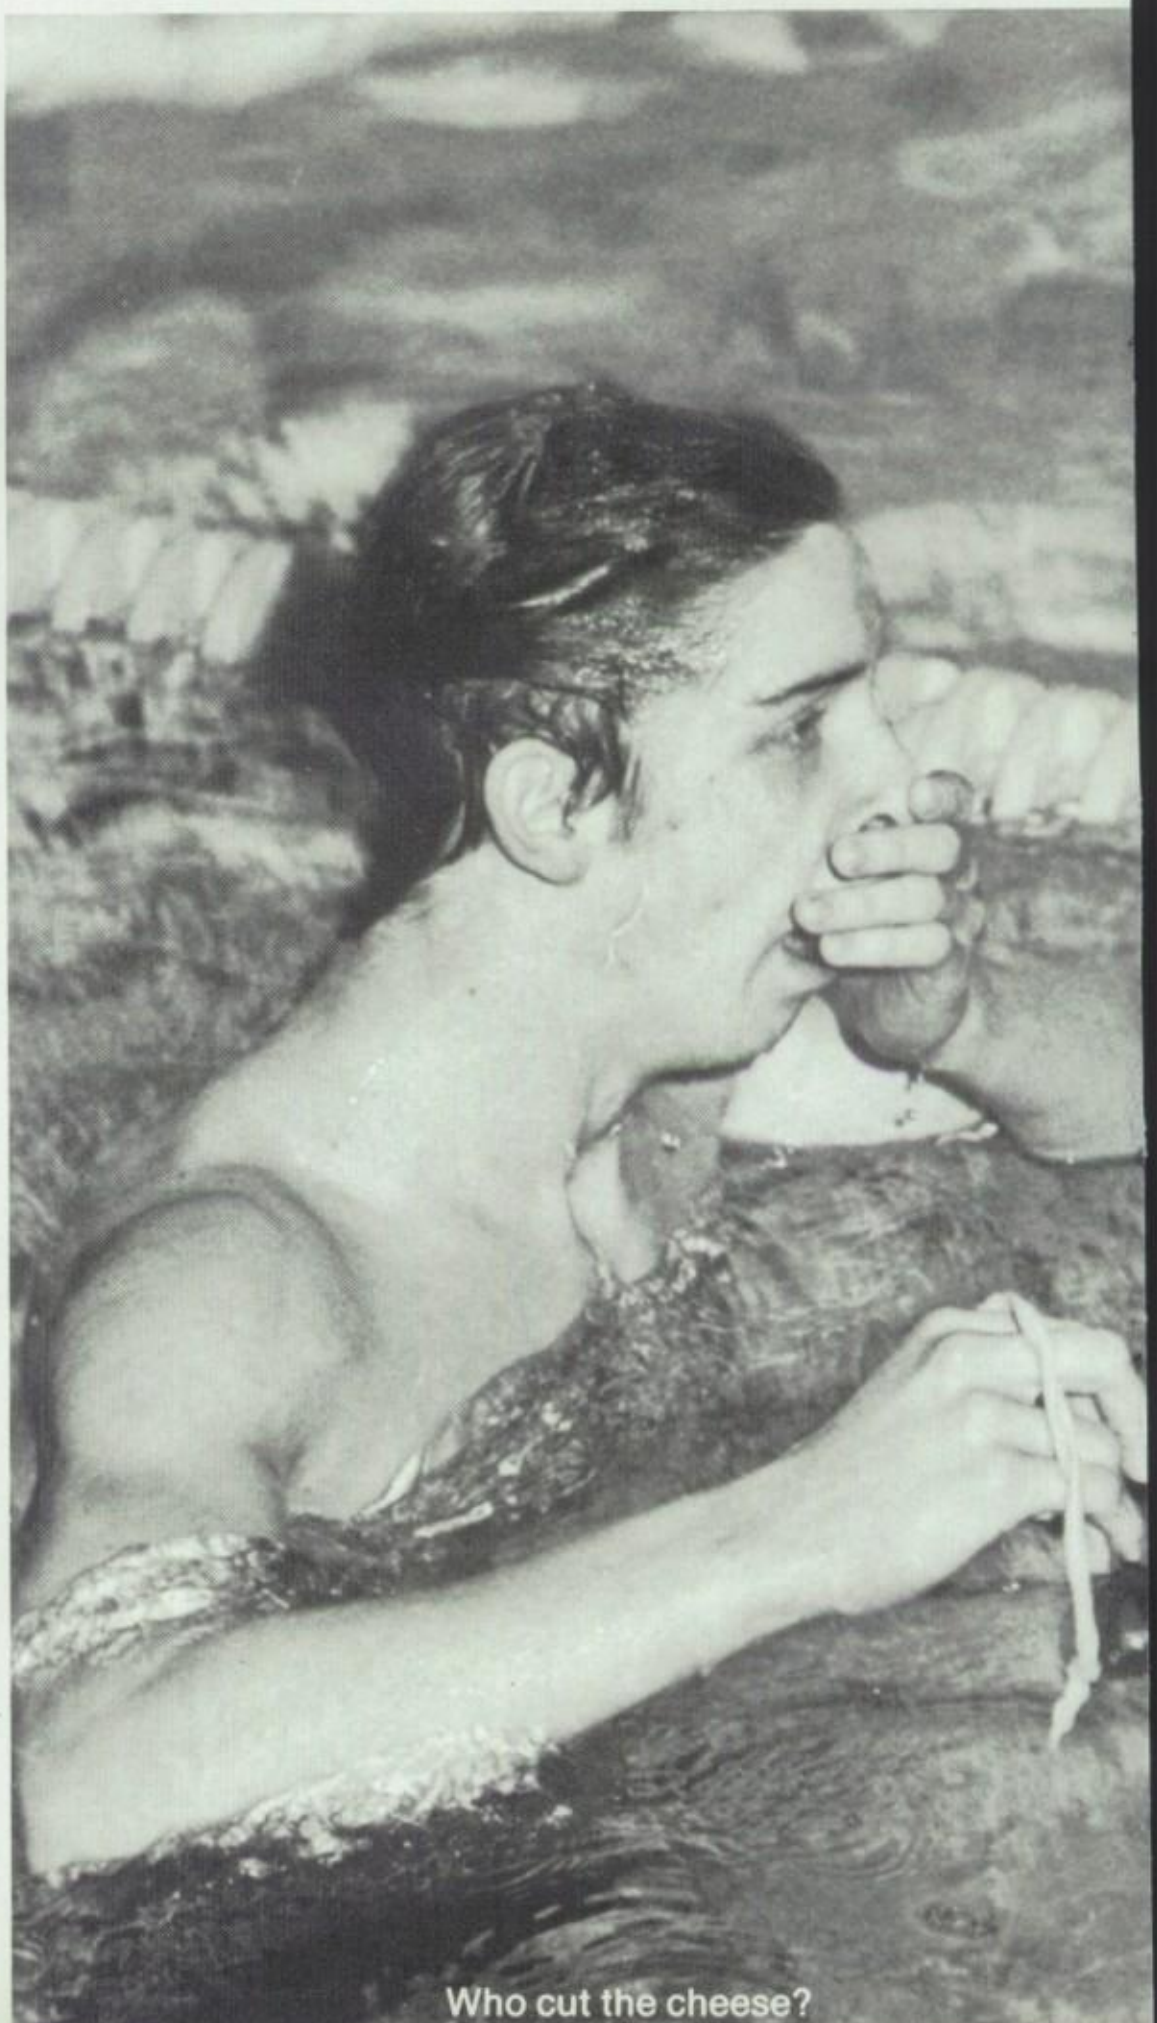
Where does that girl get-off callin' me the Incredible Hulk?



Let them eat cake!



. . . you mean this nicky here?

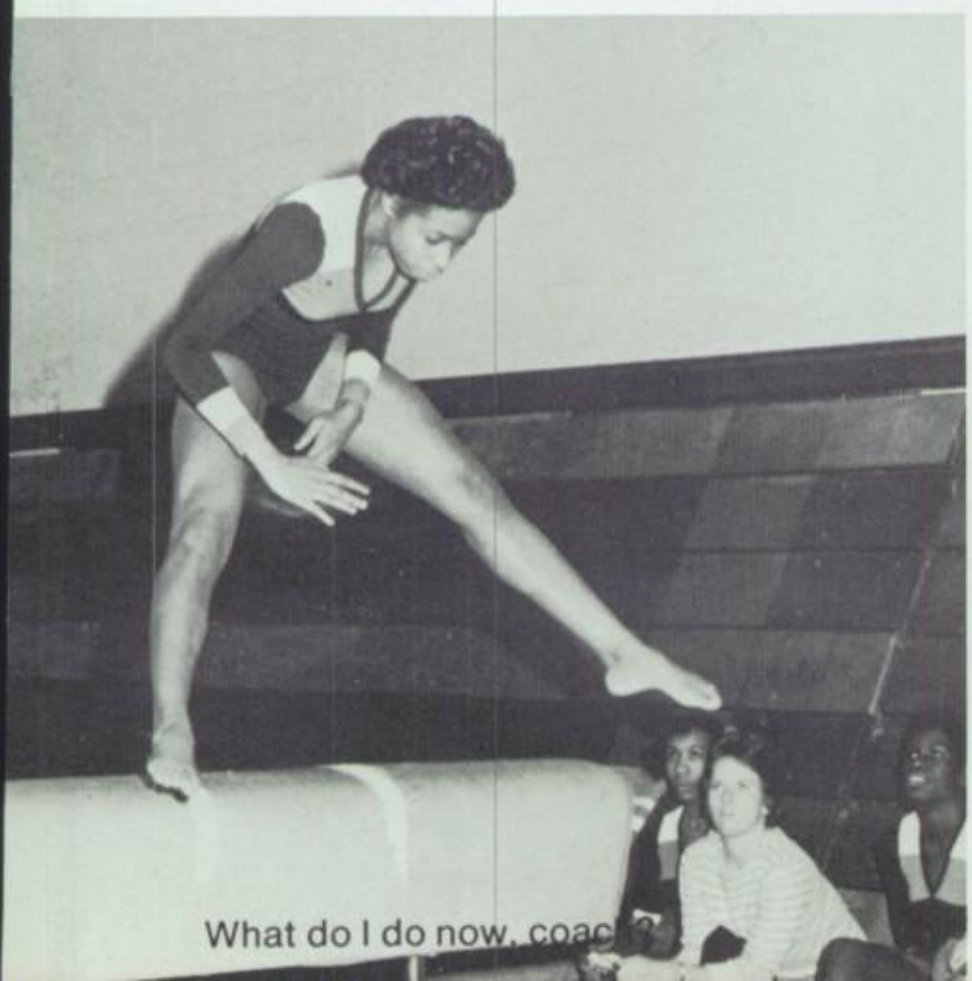


Who cut the cheese?

Let's see, 5+4+6=10 . . .

t ya' just hate when your date falls asleep on you?

Another one bites the dust!



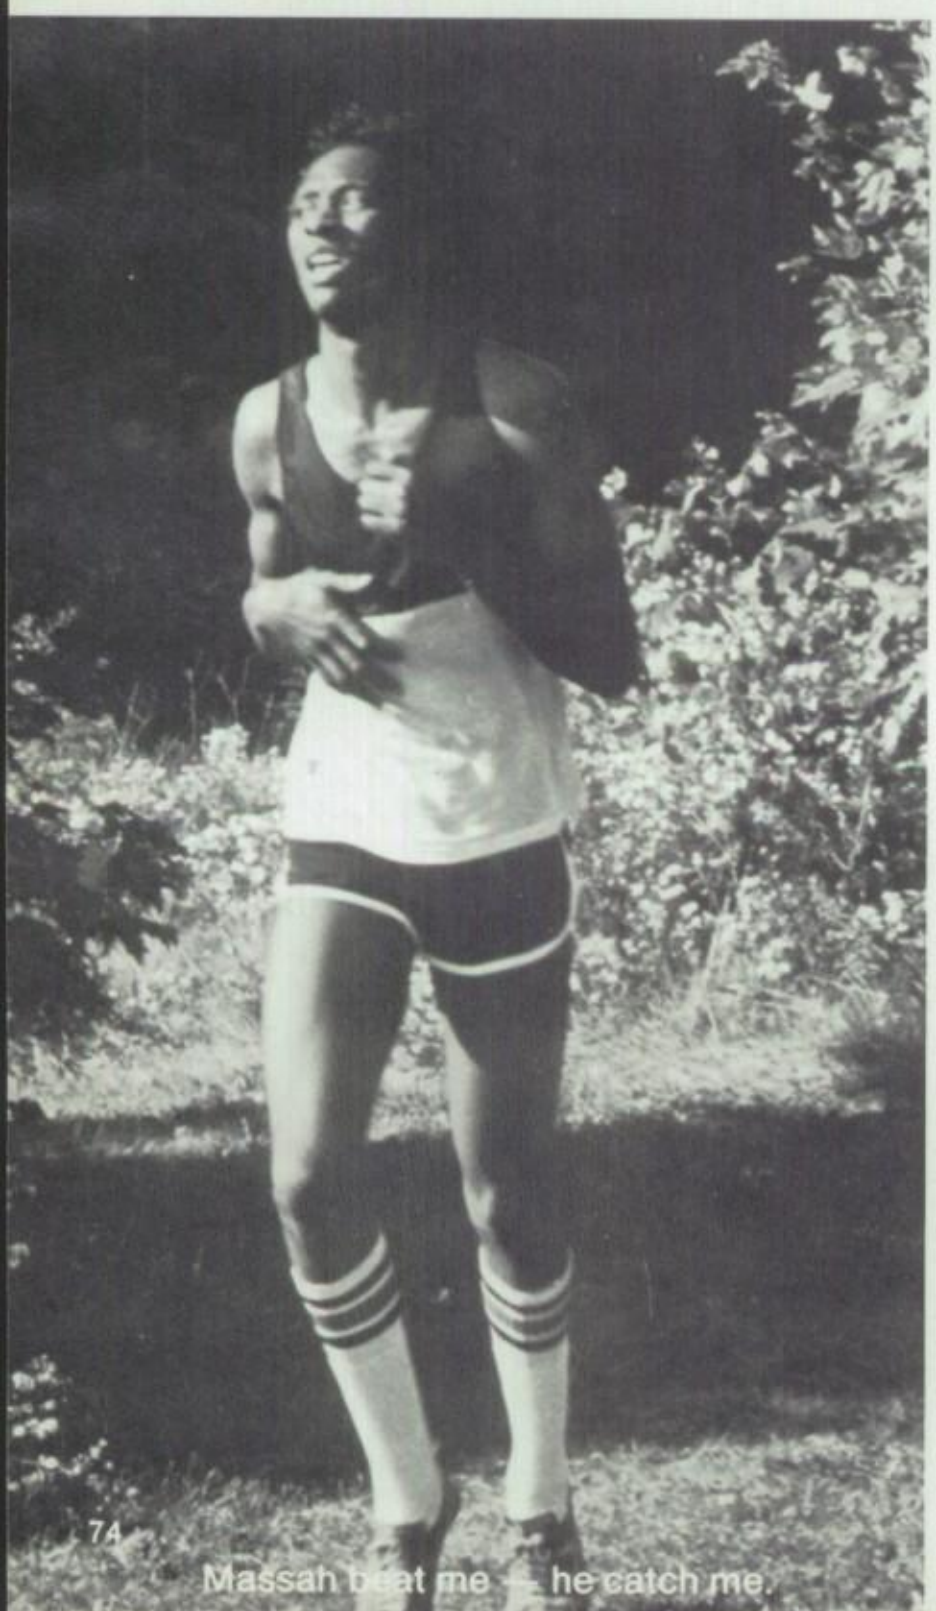
What do I do now, coach?

A new species of blowfish.

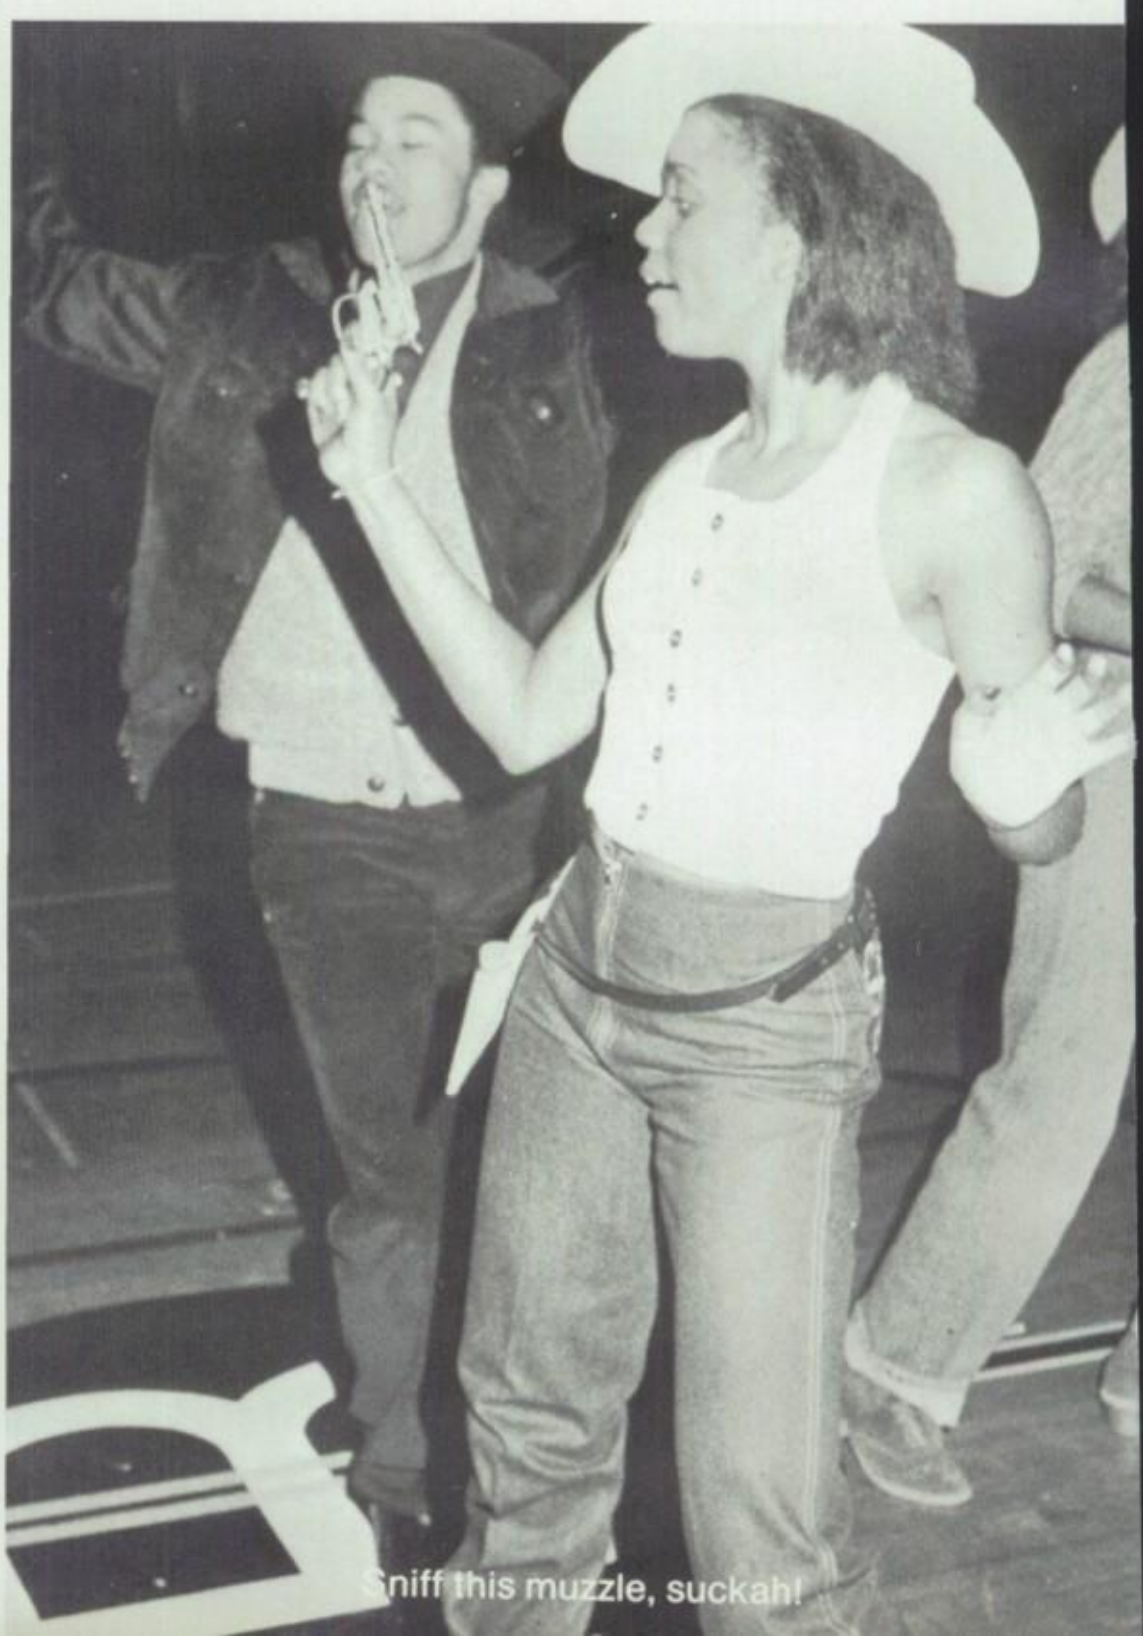
Chaps[illegible]s medicine!

I hate when I fly off the handle like this!

I'll take a double.



Massah beat me — he catch me.



Sniff this muzzle, suckah!

right — an A.F.S. student shows off her cultural kimono and tells of her customs while Dane Andrews focuses on her viewpoint.

THE GRIFFIN LEGEND CONTINUES ...

. . . ONCE AGAIN WE TRY TO BRING A NEW IMAGE OF THE GRIFFIN TO YOU. ABOVE, A CLASSICAL GREEK MOTIF, BELOW, A MARVEL COMICS-TYPE GRIFFIN WARRIOR HANDSOMELY REALIZED BY ROSS JOHNSON

Throughout the past several years, the yearbook staff has been inspired to recognize the people, places, and things, abstract and concrete, which have distinguished themselves to be meaningful elements in our lives. It has proven to be a monumental task in the compiling of a list which includes everyone and everything, but we, the yearbook staff, consider it a pleasurable obligation to mention the following factors which have ultimately made us who we are!

The American Hostages, Denise Rammel, C. Richards, Sebastian, Blaine Martin, 3/107 Cavs, High Pact Markers, Prometheus, Kozars, Bill Murray, C. Derek, Perrier, Alan Mowder II, Rossignol Skis, Humble Pie, Gymnastics Camp, Clayton Moore, Jaz, J. There is a bridge that man has built with girders of the mind;
It's buttresses are stronger than all stone and steel combined

There is a bridge that spans the years
as valor spans the sea.
A bannister of stars that lead
beyond Eternity

This timeless bridge of which I speak.
This stairway to the sky
Will one day lead man's spirit home when dusk has put him by.
